

Application for membership of Saltash Gateway Community Interest Company (CIC)

(We operate as Community Enterprises PL12)

The mission of Saltash Gateway CIC is to promote the social community and economic development of the PL12 area, and this is laid out fully in our Memorandum of Association (see www.communityenterprisespl12.co.uk). Membership is free and is open to anyone living, working or shopping in the PL12 area.

We run several local enterprises: Hopper Buses, the Community Hub and Market, Saltash Card, the management of 18 Belle Vue Road, the promotion of volunteering, and Dementia Voice, a service for those affected by dementia. We have representation on several local decision-making committees.

By being a member you:

- Can have a say about current and future projects in the community
- Can attend and vote at Members meetings
- Use or hire the Saltash Hopper bus
- Use your membership card for the Saltash Card discount scheme

As a membership-based organisation, the more members we have in the local area the more influence we can have when decisions are made about local developments.

Please tick to confirm the following:
